

Line of Duty Death: Funeral Honors & Protocols

Session Highlights

On July 21, Daniel Foley provided important insights into the planning and expectations when encountering a full honors line of duty funeral. Daniel offered suggestions and reinforced some of the standards and protocols that should and need to be followed. Among other invaluable topics, Daniel discussed why we honor and how we should honor, defined and separated the grade levels of funerals and a starting point when a death happens, defined Line of Duty Death and the Funeral Directors role, and what to expect during a full honors funeral, protocols, logistics, preparing the funeral home, the ceremonial order of service, and valuable dos and don'ts.
